

Inspiring Training in the Praxis Framework

About the Praxis Framework

The Praxis Framework is a free, community-driven framework which can help you and your organisation realise the intended benefits of projects, programmes and portfolios (P3). The Praxis Framework integrates P3 management approaches in a single consistent vertically integrated guide. The Praxis Framework is a combination of four types of best practice guidance: Knowledge; Method; Competency; and Capability, supported by a library of resources and an encyclopaedia that are being continually added to by practitioners.

About Inspiring Projects

Inspiring Projects, a division of Aspire Australasia Pty Ltd, has been recognised by APMG International as an Accredited Training Organisation, licensed to deliver training in the Praxis Framework and other best practice products. We offer training throughout Australia and New Zealand. We have over 35 years' experience in using elements of P3 management approaches in real programmes and projects, and bring this deep experience to our courses.

About our training

Our Praxis Framework training is designed to assist people and organisations to quickly develop the skills base and 'know-how' needed to effectively adopt and apply P3 management. Our trainers and training materials are regarded as among the best available in Australasia. We incorporate the latest research in effective learning into our approaches. In support of the different ways people learn, our courses include a mixture of presentations, hands-on activities, discussions and review sessions. In addition to our accredited Foundation and Practitioner courses, we offer associated executive briefings and short courses, and workshops on specific skills needed in a support office environment.

Additional support

We can deliver any of our courses in-house, or by self-study or eLearning modes, and can customise our courses to better suit your needs. We also provide ongoing coaching and mentoring support, as well as in-depth consulting and assessment services.
